

Please do not allow this "consumer bankers association" to invade my privacy. I don't care if I do business with one of them, and I do, I do not want unsolicited calls to my house. The Federal no call list has been a great thing. I do not understand why I do business with someone gives them the right to invade one of the last places of a persons retreat. If I want them I KNOW WHERE THEY ARE!